

The Regulations for Admissions of Transfer Students Department of Economics, National Taiwan University

1995.5.12 approved by Department Affairs Meeting
1997.9.25 Article 3 was revised by Department Affairs Meeting

1. Applicants who wish to transfer to the Department of Economics (hereinafter, the Department) should take the transfer examination held by the Department.
2. The admissions of transfer students will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee of the Department.
3. The admissions criteria are based on the applicant's score in the transfer examination and their GPA in the previous years. It will also be taken into account if the applicant has taken economics and calculus courses.