

Regulations of the Professor Paul K.C. Liu Memorial Scholarship

Department of Economics, National Taiwan University

Approved by the Departmental Meeting on January 6, 2022

1. Purpose of the Scholarship: Professor Paul K.C. Liu had devoted his life to the study of population economics and economic development, and had been a joint-appointed and adjunct professor of the Department of Economics for more than 30 years. In order to commemorate Professor Liu and to cultivate outstanding students, his family donated the Department to establish the “Professor Paul K.C. Liu Memorial Scholarship.”
2. Quota: One student can receive the Scholarship in each academic year.
3. Amount of the Scholarship: NTD 80,000 for each academic year.
4. Eligibility: PhD students with Taiwanese nationality who have obtained the doctoral candidacy are eligible. There is no restriction in the field of research, but those whose research fields related to population economics, labor economics, economic development are given priority. The recipient of the Scholarship cannot apply again.
5. Time of Application: The application materials should be submitted by November 15th in each academic year.
6. Required materials: Transcripts of all academic years, the thesis proposal, a recommendation letter from the advisor, and other relevant documents which are favorable for review.
7. Review procedure: After receiving an application, the Department Chair, as the convener, should form a review committee, which is responsible for reviewing the materials and determining the recipient.
8. This regulation will be implemented after being approved by the departmental meeting. After five years of implementation, the family members will evaluate the performance with the Department Chair and consider whether or not to continue supporting this scholarship.